Obituary

San Diego – Lucia Rosas Mendoza, born February 11, 1926 in Colima, Mexico to Dionicio Rosas and Carmen Gomez, passed away on May 25, 2020 and is now in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ. A resident of San Diego for over 57 years, Lucia was married to Maurilio Romo Mendoza on June 24, 1961. He left to be with our Lord on January 10, 1977 and now they will be together in eternal life. Lucia will always be remembered as a cheerful and loving mother, wife, daughter, sister, aunt, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend. Family was her focus in life. She would always bring joy to everyone around her. She had a passion for music. She loved to dance, sing, write poetry and compose her own songs. Lucia is survived by her son; Robert Mendoza and his wife Maricela Mendoza of San Diego, grandchildren; Christopher Mendoza and his wife Alicia Mendoza of San Diego, Adam Mendoza of San Diego, great-grandchild; Caleb Mendoza of San Diego and her sister Carmen Rosas Rubi of Mexico. She was known for her joy of life, her wonderful spirit, and for being a beautiful peaceful woman of amazing strength. “Ma” will be missed and will live in our hearts forever. May she rest in eternal peace.
