Jerry Cline

NOV 17, 1947 - NOV 7, 2020

Jerry Eldon Cline was born in San Diego on November 17, 1947 to Maurice Bernard and Rosita Raquel Cline. Jerry lived a happy life with his parents and family. Born into adversity with disabilities, Jerry exceeded obstacles time and again with the loving care of his parents, family, and medical caretakers.

Jerry passed away on November 7, 2020. He is preceded in death by his parents.

Jerry's loved ones left behind include his brother Timothy Cline and wife Elaine, niece Mandy Cline and nephew Marcus Cline and wife Lisa.

For the past 25 years, Jerry was cared for by Rosa Plascencia, including after the passing of his parents. Rosa's loving care, a large extended family, and a network of friends including Inocencia Estrada, provided Jerry with immense love and excellent care as a second family for Jerry. He was blessed to have Rosa, Ino, and their families in his life.

For those that knew Jerry, he loved playing with his paper plates for therapy, The Price is Right, listening to music, and everything the color red. Jerry will be missed by everyone who had an opportunity to know and love him. He is now rejoicing in Heaven in his whole and healed body.
