Dad's Tribute

My Dad was raising 3 preteen rowdy kids. I knew my dad was cool when I was 13 or 14 and at an age where we feel our parents are corny or old-fashioned.

He took us to see George Carlin at SDSU as he had just realized the AM/PM Album. It was magical, funny and my dad was the oldest one in the room, slipping on the floor laughing harder than anyone. He provided adventure, strength, kindness, love, great big bear hugs & the best breakfast, lunch or dinner in town, with his great stories and humor.

With Love Always & Forever Amen,
Your Daughter, Debbie
