Prayers of peace for Bob and his family. I know this is a difficult time share his memories. He was such a kind gentleman the few times we interacted in Kansas at family events. His sister Padgy (our mom) only had good things to say of him. Prayers - James & Wendy Turley

Kevin & I are sending our prayers to the Buesig family. I remember the first time I met Bob. He had begun dating my sister Kathy and I told her he looked a little bit like Clint Eastwood...that rugged kind of look. I remember all the family picnics we shared at Colina Park and Balboa Park. Fun times...he always showed up for his family. Not only for social events but countless times he helped out people who needed help. He provided a good living for my sister Kathy, her children Alan, Robby, Vickie, Linda, and his child Gregg. He was a self made man and that is a great legacy to leave behind. I'm praying that the Lord gives this family peace and hope as they continue through this arduous time. Love, Roxy
