Leonora Zamudio Rivera

OCT 16, 1957 - FEB 23, 2021

Celebrating the Life of Leonora Zamudio Rivera.

Born on October 16, 1957 in San Fabian, Pagasinan Philippines, where she lived until she moved to America in 1998. She was the 7th of 8 children. Her parents were Felicidad Imbornal Zamudio and Aguido Marzan Rivera. She attended Longos Elementary School, San Fabian High School, Lyceum of the Philippines and University of Baguio. She lived in San Fabian, Pagasinan and moved to San Diego, California. She was a member of the San Fabian Organization. Leonora enjoyed going out to new places and trying different types of foods. She loved being out and about, having picnics, going on walks, watching the sunset. She especially loved going back to visit her home country the Philippines where she would always visit her family and friends. Leonora was known to be a caring, loving, giving, bright and thoughtful person. Leonora was taken from us too soon and left a great emptiness in all of our lives but we will always remember the happiness she gave us all.

To cherish her memories she leaves behind her siblings: Lila Rivera Belen, Loreto Zamudio Rivera, Eduardo Zamudio Rivera, Joseph Zamudio Rivera, Elvira Maria Zamudio Rivera; nieces/nephews and grandchildren.

Rest In Paradise “Ading, Ate, Auntie, Nora, Nor”, until we meet again.
