Laurie was my little sister. I don't really know how to navigate the world without her. I have always thought she was amazing, good at everything she does. I never told her how much I admired her. I don't understand how Laurie is gone before me. She was always there for me, even if she was mad at me. She was not only my sister but she was a dear friend. I loved her so much and always will have her close in my heart. Laurie was tough but she was fair. She had a huge heart. She was one of the kindest most loving people in my life. I love and miss you so much Laurie. Till we meet again.
