Gloria M. Casas

AUG 3, 1943 - AUG 15, 2021

Gloria was born August 3, 1943, in San Diego and passed away peacefully on a beautiful morning on August 15, 2021 at 8:15 AM. She was the first in her family to attend college which inspired her other siblings to attend college and follow the same path.

She was adventurous, fearless, and passionate to pursue challenges that came her way. She travelled the world and made many friends for life.

She is survived by her sister Julia, her brother Poncho, her sister-in-law Lisa, her puppy Minette and her parrot Jalisco.

She will be greatly missed.

Gloria was an amazing friend and person. She traveled the world to many exotic places; she shared her stories and adventures with us. She always dressed beautifully and festive for the many occasions and holidays. Halloween was one of her favorite holidays. She brought love and joy to so many people. Gloria, we love and miss you, you may be gone from our sight however never our hearts we have a special place in our heart for you. Rest in peace my dear beautiful friend. Love Rachel
