The Life of Barbara Arlene Robinson

Barbara was born on May 6, 1940 in Gilroy, CA to Harold and Jean Phelps. As a small child, she moved to San Jose with her parents and brother, Ross Phelps and grew up in the Morgan Hill area. She graduated Lincoln High School and attended San Jose State where she studied English.

Barbara was a loving and wonderful mother of three energetic boys: Glenn, Jim, and David. She led a full life keeping up with the boys' activities. In 1965, Barbara relocated to San Diego and was employed by San Diego Gas and Electric for 27 years as a customer service representative. For her dedication to excellence, Barbara was featured in a full-page article which appeared in the San Diego Union Tribune Newspaper, entitled: "The 3 Faces of Barbara".

In 1974, Barbara met the love of her life, Robert Robinson. They were married in 1981 and soon welcomed their precious daughter, Roberta.

Barbara's parents were a huge influence on the way she lived her life. As a result, she was passionate about her family and being involved in community service. She was one of the founding members of Broadway Heights Community Council – and organization that has become a beacon of success throughout the nation. She also served on numerous committees and organizations.

Barbara was a creative spirit. She was an avid artist, with an ability to capture the human spirit through her artwork. Her paintings have been exhibited throughout the county, and she published a coloring book for the Centennial Celebration of Balboa Park. She loved gardening and was always willing to share the fruits of her labor.

In 2018, Barbara Joined Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church and became actively involved in the life of the church to include the Sunday School Adult Class, Manor Ministry Food Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. Ministry.
