My twin....I can't even begin to tell you how my heart is breaking right now. I miss and love you so much. First cousins by birth, but more like sisters towards the end. I loved Natalie's random calls to me at weird hours and her shouting 'TWIN' on the other line. She was so quirky, funny, goofy, compassionate, loving, beautiful and such a kind soul. It is very hard to me to accept that you're gone, but I know one day, we'll see each other again.

All the things you taught me (don't buy cheap cheese), all the tears you wiped from my eyes (suck it up Naomi), all the laughs we shared, the meals we cooked, and all our serious and silly chats will forever be in my heart. You were right by my side for so many significant moments, like giving birth to Lecie and then again when I got married. My heart is so sad thinking of the moments you will miss, the moments I will no longer be able to share. I loved how you called me the baby of the family and how you depended on me to remind you of who's birthday was coming up. I could always count on you for love and support. Till we hug again my sister.....love you my Natalia.
