I remember that every time I called Dick he used to greet me with שלום (meaning peace in Hebrew)my brother. Most of our conversations revolved around Hawaiian. Music and sometimes Western swing. I would play music through the phone for Dick's enjoyment, I chose songs with driving steel guitars. he was always impressed of what he heard He used to say man, I can never play steel like these boys. I visited Dick and even slept a few times at their house, I also enjoyed a conversation with his lovely wife Ruth. I miss you brother Dick and שלום again. תהיה נשמתך צרורה בצרור החיים...R.I.P Amen. אמן

What is the situation with Dick's wife Ruth, what a wonderful woman Ruth is. She too greets you with a smile. This couple are the most hospitable people you'll ever meet. Please if someone knows the whereabouts of Ruth let me know hopefully she's still alive and what age she's now. Thanks to you all. Jacques Dahan

I'm very sad at the passing of Dick, whenever I saw him he was smiling. We used to sit at the front yard and listen to my collection of Hawaiian music . I miss you dearly. שלום חבר, תהיה מנוחתך בגן עדן Jacques Dahan
