Helen Stella Breslau

SEP 27, 1929 - DEC 12, 2021

Helen Stella Breslau passed away on December 12, 2021. Helen was the daughter of Walter and Janet Kubisiak and was born on September 27, 1929. She attended St. Joseph High School in Chicago Ill. After high school Helen worked at some of the best restaurants and hotels in the downtown Chicago area. Helen also spent over 15 years working for National Video Corporation in their payroll department.

Helen was married to the love of her life Edward Breslau at St. Stanislaus Catholic Church on October 16, 1948. They were blissfully married for 64 years. They had two children Barbara married to (Suhail) and Bruce married to (Julie) as well as two grandchildren Brent, Blake his wife Kelsey and a great grandson Brady.

In 1973 Helen relocated to San Diego California to enjoy the abundant opportunities that existed. Upon arriving in San Diego she began to create a loving and caring home for her family.

Helen enjoyed extensive travel with her husband Edward, family and friends. Helen was known in the San Diego Polish community and was very proud of her Polish heritage. Helen served several years an officer of the North County Polish American Club and helped support The House of Poland in Balboa Park.

Helen was always known for her hospitality and love of the Catholic Church. Helen dearly loved her family and enjoyed cooking and gardening and just spending time outdoors. Her family, grandchildren, great grandchild and friends meant everything to her.
