Virgilio (Viegilio Bernal) made me (us) feel comfortable for whenever I saw him or heard his talents wherever... he was not opinionated, he was not a gossiper, he was not an enemy, he was not unfriendly, he did not frown, he held no grudges, but what he was.... he was dedicated to his wife, to his family, to his fans, to his audience, to his music, and he was dedicated to his vocation: the ultimate musician, and certainly his charismatic persona carried his soul... his soul is now in heaven. He now plays his organ for a mightier more sacred chosen... Bhoy Bernal, he has been rewarded with the most coveted prize of all (heaven)... for entertaining us and for loving and praising God. His legacy can be seen in the hundreds of videos of him performing and his wife Raquel Bernal singing and dancing to his tunes as she worked the faithful audience into a frenzy of dancing happy-happy!.
