Brice Nohea Kaimuloa

OCT 28, 1995 - JUN 13, 2022

Brice Nohea Kaimuloa, born on October 28, 1995 in Oklahoma to Keith Avery Kaimuloa and Cynthia Jean Robinson, passed away unexpectedly on June 13, 2022 in San Diego, California. He was a respected and loving son, brother, friend, uncle, and, most importantly, father. He raised a family of two handsome and funny boys, Mautinoa and Manamailelagi. Brice shared a special bond with his four siblings - Brandon, Bronson, Candace, and Bo.

Brice was passionate about cooking, music, and connecting with his Hawaiian culture. He enjoyed video games and basketball. Brice cherished time spent with his family and his two sons, who made him incredibly proud. They were the light of his life. Anyone who knew Brice was immediately touched by his kindness, his humor, and his big heart. He sought happiness for those around him and he will be remembered for his enduring smile. Brice was an adventurous spirit - always ready to try something new. His optimism captivated those who loved him.

Brice will forever be missed but never forgotten. May he forever rest in eternal peace.
