Gris Mendez lit a candle in honor of Dannie.

Mr. Binkley was a loving father, I remember him in several chats we had his son and I and he was a wise man in the words he used to talk to us, made me wish my dad was half the dad that he was, as so his wife, I remember one day going to work with them Dannie Sr and Jr. I believe it was in National City or Chula Vista not sure, but he was a very kind and loving with Dannie Jr. lots of patience with him as Dannie was goofy and loved to clown around, Mr. Binkley was a kind loving father, it was an honor to have met him for the brief time that I did as so his wife, Valerie was a nice girl too just did have enough time to know her better, but Dannie Jr. had his laughs and great times her,. Mr. Binkley was an example of a father and this is the way I remember him. My condolences to Mrs.Binkley and Valerie, I know Mrs. Binkley is a woman of faith and this will surely help in this time, Mr. Binkley will never be forgotten I'm sure of this, just as Dannie Jr. Will never be forgotten he has been in my thoughts and heart since the day I met him to this day. Mr. Binkley may he rest in peace eternally. With much respect.Gris Mendez
