Hello to Debbie, Vicky, and Family. I have sent a photo to Betty's phone and hope you get it. Looking back on our time at Sears in the Boy's Dept. and then on to El Cajon Sears when the Hillcrest store closed I can recall countless experiences that we shared and much laughter. When I married my husband, Bill, in 1988, Betty was at our wedding reception which was held here in San Diego while our actual wedding was held in Bishop. We lost touch for awhile and then I was invited to attend the luncheons that the Sears group had once a month. It was nice to see old friends but especially Betty and Lavonne and to catch up on our lives. We never know what paths our lives will take but I am very fortunate to have had Betty in mine. Sharron
