Gertrudis Molina

JAN 13, 1929 - MAY 20, 2023

Gertrudis "Tula" Molina, born on January 13, 1929 in Brawley, California, to parents Bernardo Cardenas and Concepcion Altamirano Cardenas, entered into rest on May 20, 2023, in San Diego, California. A loving daughter, sister, cousin, friend, aunt, wife mother, grandmother, great grandmother and great great grandmother. She dedicated her life to her family. She married her love and together raised 6 children; Irene, Raul, Gustavo, Francisco Javier, Armando and Leticia. Gertrudis was also honored to have shared her life with her 13 grandchildren, 31 great grandchildren and 4 great great grandchildren. It is evident she will be missed but never forgotten. May she rest in peace.

If I had only known the last time would be the last time I would've put off all the things I had to do I would've stayed a little longer, held on a little tighter Now what I'd give for one more day with you 'Cause there's a wound here in my heart where something's missing And they tell me that it's gonna heal with time But I know you're in a place where all your wounds have been erased And knowing yours are healed is healing mine... The only scars in Heaven, they won't belong to me and you There'll be no such thing as broken, and all the old will be made new And the thought that makes me smile now, even as the tears fall down is that the only scars in Heaven are on the hands that hold you now... I know the road you walked was anything but easy You picked up your share of scars along the way Oh, but now you're standing in the sun, you've fought your fight and your race is run The pain is all a million miles away... The only scars in Heaven, they won't belong to me and you There'll be no such thing as broken, and all the old will be made new And the thought that makes me smile now, even as the tears fall down is that the only scars in Heaven, yeah, are on the hands that hold you now... Hallelujah, hallelujah Hallelujah, for the hands that hold you now... There's not a day goes by that I don't see you
