Born on Feb. 4th, 1955 in Cuitzeo, Michoacan, MX. His family later moved to Guanajuato, MX where he lived during his early teen years. He was one of eight children born to Enrique Calderon and Angela Diaz.

While Martin loved school, and hoped to continue his education, he was forced to drop out of grade school in order to help support his family.

He worked as migrant worker up and down the CA central valley during his initial years in the United States. He later settled in San Diego where he went on to work at grocery store chains that included; AlphaBeta, Lucky's, Albertsons, and Vons around the San Diego area. He worked over 30+ years prior to retiring. He lived most of his life in San Diego where he met, and married his wife, Francisca. He was married to Francisca for 38 years, and raised four children with her. He was a member of Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish, where he got married, and later attended services with his family.

He is survived by his wife, Francisca, his sons Martin and George, and his daughters Angela and Jessica

His family will forever remember him as a caring, and wonderful father and husband; who always put his loved ones first and foremost.

Fue triste enterarnos que tío Martín había fallecido. No sólo perdimos a un tío, también perdimos a el hermano mayor que hubiéramos querido tener. Pero nos quedamos con todos los buenos recuerdos que vivimos junto a nuestro querido tío Martín. Gracias tío Martín por cuidarnos y ayudarnos tanto. Siempre te vamos a recordar con mucho cariño. Love, La familia de tú hermano Franco Díaz

So sad to hear of Martin's passing. Such a hard working family man and so very kind. So proud of Francisca and Martin who both worked to raise their children, and good, successful children they raised. Martin once bumped the mirror on our old VW van pulling out. Came to the door immediately. How many people would have just driven off! My husband Doug told him not to worry about it, but when we went out the next morning, he had found a matching mirror and installed it over night. Speaks to his honesty, integrity, honor, and just plain being a really good person. Expressing sympathy and caring thoughts for healing to the Calderon Diaz family. In our hearts, you will always be part of our family too.
