Jean Diane Razo

OCT 20, 1943 - DEC 25, 2023

Jean D. Razo, 80, of San Diego was called home, Christmas Day, December 25, 2023. There to meet her were her husband Mario Razo Sr and daughter Bridget LeGerrette along with so many others. Her legacy will be carried on by her 9 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Jean enjoyed spending time with her family, drinking coffee and doing crossword puzzles, collecting elephants and shopping. Holidays were always so important to her. She always made sure everyone was taken care and never left out, whether it was a box of cookies, a plate to go, or a loving embrace she always had something to give.

Jean was known for her opinionated, sarcastic, stubborn attitude and always lending a hand whenever anyone was in need. She was the most loving, caring and amazing mom, grandma, friend and overall person.

She is survived by three sisters, her son, daughter, sister in law and 9 grandkids and 12 great grandkids. She left a mark on many of us and will forever be missed. She is now reunited with the love of her life Mario Razo Sr. dancing, laughing and having a great time, until we meet again.

My big sister..Always looking out for me. I would always say to her "you're not my Mom". She would say if Mom was still here she would whoop your butt. Thank you sis for always being there for me. I love you..RIP with Mario.
