My husband, Henry, and I taught with Trulene at Montgomery. She was a gracious lady and outstanding teacher who always put the kids first especially when she shifted to counselor role. We went to the cemetery on Friday and that's why we couldn't find the "niche". Unfortunately due to a surgery already scheduled we can't come on Monday, but will be with you in our thoughts. Take care and know Trulene was a highly respected educator. Joanne Silva
