David T Johnson

MAY 19, 1950 - JAN 27, 2024

My story about my big brother. He was ' A Man after God's own heart '. He believed in the here and now, jumping to serve God, serving whatever was presented to help others better their lives. A large part of him was not of this world, he had very little interest in most of our cultural urban desires or distractions. My brother's focus was doing the right and honorable action with all he met. In meeting you, you could become a project mission plan to align his time, effort, and money to assist in any need or endeavor you may have. He believed in objective Truth, Right and Wrong that applies to all individuals.

His life was one of looking for the next adventure. If you were to ask if he would join you climbing Mt Everest next week he probably would say Yes thinking we can figure out the details on the climb.

That was my big brother, David.
