Josephine Marie Gomez

DEC 21, 1968 - MAR 3, 2024

The family of Josephine Marie Gomez has entrusted Greenwood Mortuary to attend to the funeral services of their loved one.

A beautiful soul has been called to rest in the eternal garden under the care of their higher power.

While many will feel emptiness and the loss of their presence, many will find comfort that they are in a better place.

May her spirit continue to be present in every day of your existence and in every memory you express.

They say that one is forgotten or dies when you allow the memories to fade or go unspoken. Allow yourself time to grieve as this is part of the healing process but never forget that it lies within oneself to live and continue the legacy.

May her soul rest in peace and continue to watch over you and grant you strength.

My beautiful auntie... my heart will forever have a bigger hole from the pain of you not here but I know your up in that sky doing the electric slide tha best watching us as we grow in life. I will always remember the feeling of you being home away from home and thank you for the best memories growing up as a little kid with all of my cousins, Thank you for the biggest blessing I could ask for, my family. This year I got to pour all of my love into you like you've always done for me and I wish our love could've saved you but I know heaven is where home is now. I love you my daygo princess and your legacy of love will forever shine 🌟💖

Angie and Josie were a big part of my life in my early teens. So many memories, most of them with Angie and Josie together but one does stand out with just Josie, I would like to share. It's a silly little story but the comfort Josie gave me that morning meant something and I never forgot it. Josie and I were sophomores in high school walking to school one morning when my boyfriend thought it would be a great time to break up with me. He said his peace and walked the other direction leaving me in tears. I remember being so upset and crying and crying. Poor Josie was caught off guard and tried her best to comfort me. When nothing was working she pulled out a piece of Hubba Bubba bubble gum and said here try this, maybe this will make you feel better. I looked at her and we laughed and laughed. Thank you Josie. I never forgot that piece of bubble gum you gave me 41 years ago to help mend my broken heart.

Thank you for the memory. It made me smile. I could see her handing you the bubble gum in my mind.

Josie is my 1st cousin. I have a lot of cousins but Josie and her sister Angie were more like my sisters. We did everything together. From being little kids to teenagers, then having our own kids, and into adulthood. Never did I think she would not be here. Now that our kids were all older we begin to do things with my Wife Raquel like Old school concerts and low rider shows. Having the time of our life and making so many memories. Preparing me to remember her with a smile. Thank you Josie for all the good times and memories. Please watch over us all. You are our Angel. Fly high beautiful. I know your loving it there in Heaven. 333
