Michele Simpson posted:

We were so privileged to have known our friend Cecile. Cecile ministered to both my parents and we became long distance partners with her care. Through Cecile's dedication and care for both of them, we were doubly blessed to continue our friendship with Cecile after the passing of mom & dad. Michele & I had our hearts broken when Henry, her oldest son, called our New Jersey home to tell us of her passing. It was early that morning as we talked. We were 3000 miles apart but the emotions had closed that distance, the gap, instantly. Cecile will be forever remembered in our hearts. And we know that we were so lucky to have Cecile as our friend. She was special indeed. Christopher & Michele Simpson
