Mrs. Marilou "Loyda" Sarne

OCT 9, 1970 - AUG 31, 2024

Our beloved daughter, sister, niece, cousin, friend, mother, and wife, Marilou (Loyda) Sarne, peacefully returned to her Heavenly Father on Saturday, August 31, 2024, surrounded by love and all her family and friends.

Loyda was born on October 9, 1970, to Leonardo L. Sarne and Soun S. Sarne in Thailand. She was born with a caring soul, a deep love for animals, and steadfast loyalty to her friends and family. Growing up in San Diego, CA, she led an amazing life. She married Duy B. Le on October 18, 2000, and together they raised their two sons, Duong D. Le and Liem D. Le, along with their dog, Emmo. She loved to cook, bake, and bring smiles to people's faces.

Loyda's caring spirit and generous heart touched everyone she met. She had a special gift for seeing the good in people and bringing out the best in them. An avid lover of photography and gardening, she spent much of her time outdoors, enjoying the serene beauty of nature. She had a remarkable ability to attract butterflies and other animals, such as flamingos and turtles. Her love for photography captured the happy, free-spirited essence of who she was. Loyda also enjoyed watercolor painting, which was a true expression of her emotions and individuality.

She is survived by her husband, Duy B. Le; sons, Duong D. Le and Liem D. Le; father, Leonardo L. Sarne; mother, Soun S. Sarne; and siblings, Suttichai S. Sripolpa, Mary Jane Sarne, and Jennifer Sarne; as well as nieces, Kathaliya Inthavong, and Kaleila Sarne.

You are now resting in the arms of our loving Father.

I just found out. My Drill Team sister I can see your beautiful fun smile. I remember we had to make a routine and your song that you use was Brass Monkey. Omg every time I heard see you and the routine. We might have not seen each other since high school but you had imprinted your routine in my head and I thank you. May you rest in peace 🙏🌸
