Gaylon Denese Davis-Kado

JUL 5, 1960 - JAN 29, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Gaylon Denese Davis-Kado, who left this world on January 29th, 2025. She was a loving mother, a devoted sister, and a cherished friend whose presence brought warmth and love to everyone she encountered.

Born to the late Booker T. Kado Jr. and Leona Marie Armstrong (03/01/1946 - 02/27/2015), Gaylon Denese Davis-Kado was a beacon of strength, kindness, and resilience. She was an exceptional and caring sister, always offering unwavering support to her siblings, Shannon Rochelle Kado (60 years old) and Derrick Dwayne Kado (63 years old). She was also a beloved aunt to Porscha Shanae Kado (39 years old) and is preceded in death by her dear nephew, Michael Derrick Kado.

Above all, she was an incredible mother, pouring her heart and soul into raising her children, Michael Dwayne Davis (45 years old) and Gaylon LeShawn Beason. Her love knew no bounds, and she instilled in them the values of compassion, perseverance, and integrity that will carry on as her legacy.

Her kindness, wisdom, and selfless nature touched the lives of many. Whether through her nurturing spirit, her unwavering support, or her endless love, she left a lasting imprint on all who had the privilege of knowing her. She will be profoundly missed but forever remembered in the hearts of those she loved.

May she rest in eternal peace, surrounded by love and light.

🌳🌟 In Loving Memory of My Mother, Gaylon 🌟🌳 Today, I planted a memorial tree in honor of my beautiful mother, Gaylon. This tree is more than just a symbol—it's a living tribute to her strength, her kindness, and the unconditional love she gave so freely. With every root it lays and every branch it stretches toward the sky, it carries the essence of who she was: grounded, nurturing, and full of grace. As it grows, it will serve as a quiet sanctuary—a place of peace, remembrance, and reflection. A reminder that although her physical presence is no longer here, her spirit continues to bloom in everything good and beautiful. This tree stands in her name, in her light, and in her legacy. Forever rooted in my heart. 🌿❤️

Tonight, I lit a candle in honor of my beautiful mother, Gaylon. Though her physical presence is no longer with us, her light—her warmth, her laughter, her love—continues to burn brightly in our hearts. This flame is more than a symbol... it's a promise. A reminder that her spirit lives on in every moment of strength, every act of kindness, and every memory we hold dear. Her flame will never die. Rest peacefully, Mama. You are forever loved, and eternally remembered. ❤️

I love you big sis, you was always there for me. I had to go to you before I went to Momma. You was like my second number. There will never be another like you love your brother Derrick.

One of my fondest and most cherished memories of my mother, Gaylon, is how she never let a day end without letting us know she was thinking of us. No matter how tired she was, she would always say "Night Night, just checking in" or find some sweet little way to let us know she was okay. That was her — thoughtful, consistent, and full of love in every little thing she did. Gaylon was my best friend. Her sense of humor was always on point — sharp, witty, and effortlessly funny. She had a way of making me laugh even when life was heavy, and those laughs still echo in my heart. Even in the roughest of times, she found a way to keep going, to push through with grace and grit. That strength lives in me now. We shared countless quiet moments — just being present with each other — and I hold those closest. Whether we were talking, reminiscing, or just sitting in the same room, her presence was enough to make me feel grounded and safe. I love her deeply, and I miss her terribly. But I know she's still with me. I carry her spirit, her strength, her laughter, and her love with me always.

When we flew Mom out on her first trip to New York to visit us. This was such an unforgettable memory.
