I met Marisa at the Loma Verde rec center, back in the 80's. She was so chill back then and thru-out our school years. Later on we reconnected thru our Kids. Our family's lives were so mirrored. Marisa had so much faith, courage and strength, when we talked she was so committed to getting better and spending time with her family. I know she is with our Lord now in Heaven. She is smiling just like she always did. Love and prayers for Sam, Ari, and Makena.

My loving tía was always there to support me unconditionally. When I was sick last year she checked in on me to make sure I was okay and always created a safe space. I'll miss her amazing heart, hugs and warrior spirit. My world won't be the same without you. I love you.
