We are all so blessed to have shared life, love, smiles, and lots of hugs with you and Tata. I cherish all the family time with the kids growing up running around in the back yard, finding Easter Eggs, all the cooking we did in the kitchen with you teaching the girls to make birds nests for Thanksgiving or showing me who to make spanish rice. The cute things with Tata sneaking a dollar or a goody to each of the kids before we would leave saying "dont tell your Nana" lol. Tata always making me smile with his silly funny faces he would make and quirky sounds to get everyone to laugh. Just being silly, I will always have a smile on my face remembering you both and the love we shared :)Your hearts will live within all of us. You both are now reunited together in heaven to forever share your love watching over all of us.Love always, Sue and kids

I love you both, and I will continue to share the love you've always given. To all the silly faces Tata would make or the delicious food that came with Nanas love. I will always cherish every single one of those days. May you be at peace and with Tata again and continue to watch over us. Love, Alexis ❤️

Dear Nana, I'm so grateful for all the time we shared — the walks, the laughs, the talks — each moment so meaningful and memorable. I miss you deeply, but I find comfort knowing you're reunited with Tata. It makes me happy to know you're renewed in Heaven, free from the pain and discomfort you endured here. I love you, Nana and I'll always miss laughing and sometimes crying during our shrimp dinners together. You taught me a lot in the 53 years I got to spend with you. With all my love, Your Grandson, Jason.
