Beverly Ann Falor

DEC 4, 1944 - SEP 1, 2025

Beverly Ann Falor December 4, 1944 - September 1, 2025

Beverly Ann Falor, beloved daughter, wife, mother, and grandmother, passed away on September 1, 2025. She lived a life full of adventure, love, and faith.

Beverly had a deep passion for travel, going to unforgettable places around the world including Africa, the Panama Canal, Alaska, the Caribbean, England, Costa Rica, Hawaii, and so many more. She was fearless and spirited, skydiving, zip lining, and even soaring through the skies in a glider.

A devoted Catholic, Beverly was also a wonderful neighbor and friend, always generous with her kindness and warmth. She was a loving cat mom to her cherished Lily, who brought her much joy.

Beverly's legacy of love, adventure, and faith will be forever remembered by her family and all who were blessed to know her

In the time I spent with Beverly she converted me from devout Democrat to a hard core Republican. Gotta love her always!

She loved her Republican Party, mainly President Trump. When she lived with us a few years ago, her and my husband would always (and I mean always) watch Fox News and just talk about everything. If you wanted to get her going, that was the way to do it; Politics 😊
