Cruz Lopez

MAY 3, 1939 - FEB 2, 2026

Cruz Lopez was born on May 3, 1939, in Savage, Montana, to Luisa Zamora and Refugio Lopez.

He grew up in a large and loving family alongside his eight brothers and sisters. He is survived by his brother Eustacio and his sisters Anita and Vicky.

During his high school years, Cruz played the trumpet, sharing his love of music with those around him. After graduation, he joined the Highway Patrol before moving to California with his entire family.

In California, Cruz worked various jobs until his family established a trucking business. He became a dedicated truck driver for 45 years, building a reputation for hard work, determination, and excellence. With an outstanding record of no accidents, he took great pride in his work.

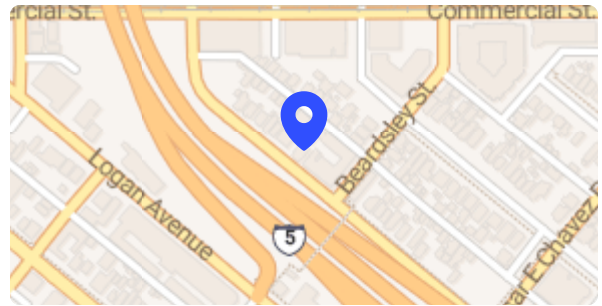

Through perseverance and an entrepreneurial spirit, he became a successful businessman and provider. Cruz is survived by his children from his first marriage: Rose, John, Martin, and Carmen. He is also survived by his beloved wife, Elvira Lopez, and their children Jeannette, Crucita, and Hilda.

He leaves behind many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren. Cruz will be deeply missed and forever remembered by all who knew and loved him. "The road has ended but his rest has begun"

I met uncle Cruz 3 or 4 times in my life. Every single time I saw him he was in a good mood, pleasant and easy to talk to. The last time I saw him he said "im happy, I can't complain, im 81, I can still walk and I have my health." I'll always remember uncle Cruz as the nice, social relative that was always happy to see family and have a good time. Until next time tio, enjoy heaven 🙏
