

Emilio Brionez

May 22, 1923 - October 22, 2021

Emilio Brionez passed away Friday, October 22, 2021 at his daughter's home in Washington, UT. He was born on May 22, 1923 to Claro Briones and Paz Verdeja Briones. He married his sweetheart, Victoria Abaroa on April 18, 1942.

Emilio went to Memorial Junior High. There he met Victoria through her brother Ray Abaroa. They lived a block away and then they lived next door to each other. He liked to say "he married girl next door."

Emilio served in World War II in the China Berma India Campaign. When the war was over, he decided to go back and finish his schooling finally getting his AA degree. He went to work as a civilian for the federal government at North Island. When he retired from that job he went to work with Vickie at the Palomar's Book Store and retired from there. Shortly after his beloved wife, Vickie passed away. It was a great loss for him.

He was a faithful member of the Church of the Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Vickie and Emilio served in the San Diego Temple as workers in the baptistry. Three years later he married Cecilia Carrillo.

He is survived by his daughters Victoria Vance (Dennis), Elisa Felley (Michael), his sons Philip (Susan), who preceded him in death and Michael John (Mark Partal) and his wife Cecilia Carrillo and 19 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 12 noon on Saturday, November 20, 2021 in the chapel at Greenwood. Graveside service will follow.

Comments

“ Emilio and my mother Cecilia were married in the San Diego temple and spent 20 wonderful years together. They enjoyed traveling and spending time with there good friends from church. We loved having Emilio and my Mom over for the holidays with my family. Emilio was a wonderful stepfather and TaTa to my grandchildren. Emilio and my Mom were a wonderful example of what true love and total devotion looked like. Emilio will be greatly missed in our family.

“ I came to know Emilio when he married my mother-in-law, Cecelia. He became a good friend and a wonderful addition to our family for twenty years. He always had an interesting story to tell at Thanksgiving, Christmas and many family get-togethers. Rest In Peace amigo.

“ I grew up with Emilio's kids in the old San Diego 2nd Ward and remember when he was our teacher's quorum advisor. Many great memories of his example, his goodness and his mentoring. Playing football on the grass at Balboa Park was a favorite. We will all miss him, but recognize he truly led a full and abundant life.--
