“ The day you were born I was worried because you were the smallest of my babies. I remember how sensitive your tummy was and how only grandma could help it. She passed a month later and someone said with a life coming one leaves and somehow I drew from you. And then one day I picked you up and played with you and just saw my beautiful “little boy” that I would love for years to come I had a bond with you that I know you felt as a baby but may not have felt it later. It was there Jonny my baby boy and you took in so much of this cold world like losing your brother but still kept pushing. And though my heart is breaking like crazy I know you’re at peace. I’m empty without you but I have the beautiful baby girl you left us and it helps us all with her carrying your smile and bright eyes. So thank you Mijo for bringing joy into my life and leaving me a piece of you. I know you’re with grandma and your brother so rest baby boy. Till we meet again...I love you ❤️🙏

“ You’re the best big brother I could have ever had johnny. I’m so sad your time was cut so short. You deserved to live a long beautiful life. But I know you’re at peace with our brother Ted and grandma. Love you johnny boy
